STATEMENT

C & W Communications, Inc. (Carrier)

C & W Communications, Inc. has established operating procedures that ensure compliance with the Federal Communication Commission's regulations regarding the protection of consumer proprietary network information (CPNI)

- * Carrier has implemented a system whereby the status of a customer's CPNI approval can be determined prior to the use of CPNI.
- * Carrier continually educates and trains its employees regarding the appropriate use of CPNI. C & W Communications has established disciplinary procedures should an employee violate the CPNI procedures established by C & W Communications.
- * Carrier maintains a record of its and its affiliates' sales and marketing campaigns that use its customer CPNI. C & W Communications also maintains a record of any and all instances where CPNI was disclosed or provided to third parties, or where third parties were allowed access to CPNI. The record includes a description of each campaign, the specific CPNI that was used in the campaign, and what products and services were offered as a part of the campaign.
- * Carrier has established a supervisory review process regarding compliance with the CPNI rules with respect to outbound marketing situations and maintains records of carrier compliance for a minimum period of one year. Specifically, C & W Communication's sales personnel obtain supervisory approval of any proposed outbound marketing request for customer approval regarding its CPNI.
- * Carrier has not had to take any action against data brokers.
- * There have been no customer complaints in the past year concerning unauthorized release of CPNI.
